DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 24-4.7.

Synopsis: Telephone solicitations. Amends the statute governing telephone solicitations of consumers (Indiana's "do not call" statute) to provide that certain prohibitions that apply to telephone solicitors also apply to: (1) suppliers in consumer transactions; and (2) sellers engaging in telephone solicitations. Adds a new prohibition to provide that a telephone solicitor, a supplier, or a seller may not sell, transfer, or make available to another person for solicitation purposes a consumer's telephone number if: (1) the telephone number appears in the most current "do not call" listing; or (2) the consumer: (A) has previously requested not to receive telephone sales calls from a solicitor, a supplier, or a seller; and (B) has not rescinded that request. Adds a provision to prohibit the following: (1) A telephone solicitor, a supplier, or a seller from transferring a live call to one or more other persons if the call has been placed to a consumer in violation of the "do not call" statute or the statute governing telephone solicitations. (2) A telephone solicitor, a supplier, or a seller from providing substantial assistance or support to another person if the telephone solicitor, supplier, or seller knows or consciously avoids knowing that the person has violated the "do not call" statute or the statute governing telephone solicitations. Makes conforming amendments to the "do not call" statute's civil remedies provisions.

Effective: July 1, 2014.
